SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of : ten (10) years on each count, counts 1 through 12, terms to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: MARK ALLEN MCNEELY, SR.
CASE NUMBER: CR 19-5-M-DWM-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must not possess camera phones or electronic devices that could be used for covert photography without the prior written approval of the probation officer.
2. You must not access the Internet except for reasons approved in advance by the probation officer.
3. You may own or possess only one device that has access to online services as approved by the probation officer. If that device is not a phone, you may also possess one mobile phone that has no online capability or camera. You must obtain the approval of the probation officer prior to using any device. You must not own, possess, or use any additional devices without the prior written approval of the probation officer. Your approved devices must be capable of being monitored and compatible with monitoring hardware, software, or other technology approved by the probation officer. You must allow the probation officer to make unannounced examinations of all computer, hardware, and software, which may include the retrieval and copying of all data from your computer. You must allow the probation officer to install software to restrict or monitor your computer access. You must pay part or all of the costs of this monitoring as directed by the probation officer. You must not use any computer device to access sexually explicit materials as defined in these conditions nor to contact minors or gather information about a minor. You must not possess encryption or steganography software. You must provide records of all passwords, Internet service, and user identifications (both past and present) to the probation officer and immediately report changes. Immediately means within 3 hours. You must sign releases to allow the probation officer to access phone, wireless, Internet, and utility records.
4. All employment must be approved in advance in writing by the probation officer. You must consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer.
5. You must pay restitution in the amount of $3,000. You are to make payments at a rate of $50 per month, or as otherwise directed by your probation officer. Payment shall be made to the Clerk, United States District Court, P.O. Box 8537, Missoula, MT 59807 and shall be disbursed to:

provider. This condition applies to written stories, visual, auditory, telephonic, or electronic media, computer programs or services, and any visual depiction as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(5). You must not knowingly patronize any place where sexually explicit material or entertainment is the primary item of sale, such as adult bookstores, clubs, or Internet sites, unless otherwise approved by the probation officer in conjunction with your sex offender treatment provider. You must not utilize 900 or adult telephone numbers or any other sex-related numbers, or on-line chat rooms that are devoted to the discussion or exchange of sexually explicit materials as defined above.

9. You must enter and successfully complete a sex offender treatment program as approved by the probation officer. You are to remain in that program until released by the probation officer in consultation with the treatment provider. You must pay part or all of the costs of this treatment, depending upon your ability to pay, as directed by the probation officer.
10. You must participate in and successfully complete a program of substance abuse treatment as approved by the probation officer. You must remain in the program until you are released by the probation officer in consultation with the treatment provider. You must pay part or all of the costs of this treatment, depending upon your ability to pay, as directed by the probation officer.
11. You must abstain from the consumption of alcohol and are prohibited from entering establishments where alcohol is the primary item of sale.
12. You must participate in substance abuse testing to include not more than 120 urinalysis tests, not more than 120 breathalyzer tests, and not more than 12 sweat patch applications annually during the period of supervision. You must pay part or all of the costs of testing, depending upon your ability to pay, as directed by the probation officer.
13. You must utilize one primary physician and one pharmacy to prescribe, dispense, and monitor all necessary prescription medication. If you have a valid prescription, you must follow the instructions on the prescription. You must notify any treating physician or facility of a history of substance abuse. You must allow third-party disclosure to any treating physician or facility regarding any history of substance abuse. You must notify your supervising probation officer of the name of the physician and pharmacy and of any changes in either one.
